Eat, Drink, Enjoy - Orkney

2026/27

WELCOME TO THE EAT, DRINK, ENJOY ORKNEY GUIDE 2026/27

Orkney is famed the world over for its wonderful food and drink, with many of our larger local producers and famous flagship brands successfully representing the islands in national and international marketplaces.

But Orkney is also home to an incredible range of much smaller food and drink businesses, all equally proud of their carefully crafted, high quality produce. There are also numerous hotels, cafes, restaurants and delicatessens offering the very best of Orkney food and drink, along with top class customer service.

From chutney and cheese to beremeal and bakery goods, the sheer diversity of fabulous food and drink available from our local producers and providers means you'll never run out of new things to try (and hopefully buy) during your stay in the islands.

Keep this free guide with you throughout your visit and use the information in it to seek out different ways that you can get hold of the wide range of Orkney delights out there. Eat, drink, be merry and remember to come back again. You're always welcome.

HOTELS WITH RESTAURANTS

Orkney is incredibly well served by hotels, covering all budgets. Whether you're here for pleasure or on business, a warm welcome is guaranteed. Our experienced hosts also pride themselves on their use of fine local produce, so suffice to say you'll eat well during your stay.

AYRE HOTEL

1

Situated on the Kirkwall sea front and close to the town centre, the Ayre Hotel is one of Orkney's finest, offering modern, comfortable rooms and a friendly, professional service. The hotel has also gained a well-deserved reputation locally as a great place to eat, with a selection of menus to suit all occasions. Private functions are catered for and the hotel is a popular venue for meetings and conferences.
